

Policies & Procedures

Subject: Junior Curlers in Adult Leagues
Leagues: All Applicable Leagues
Number: RCR-01
Issued By: Board of Directors
Date Revised: September 30, 2023

DEFINITIONS: RENFREW CURLING RINK "Club"

BOARD OF DIRECTORS "Board"

1. General:

Members of the Junior Curling Program may accelerate their skills and strategy development by participation in adult curling leagues at the Renfrew Curling Rink.

Adult members may also find it helpful to utilize juniors as occasional spares, or inclusion in leagues or club competitions.

In the event that any adult league is oversubscribed Juniors will either be placed on the spare list or waiting list as described in the policy with regards to oversubscription of a league.

2. Policy:

- a) Junior curlers aged 14 years or older can be utilized as spares in adult leagues during the regular season.
- b) Junior curlers aged 14 years or older can enter into adult leagues as regular team members provided the league is not oversubscribed. In the event the league is oversubscribed the Junior will be placed on a waiting list and the leagues spare list. Priority will be given to adult members on the waiting list.
- c) Junior curlers aged 14 years or older can enter into league competitions, club bonspiels, and competitions.
- d) Junior curlers aged 14 or older but under the of age of majority (as defined by the Province of Ontario) must have their parents' permission to participate in adult leagues and competitions. Parents' permission will be provided upon registration of the minor on the form in Appendix A.

- e) Junior curlers younger than 14 years of age may participate in club “fun spiels” provided they are supervised and playing with a parent, legal guardian, or parents designate.
